This collaboration alone was a milestone as it was the first time that these organizations jointly embraced community enrichment by partnering to stage this auspicious occasion.
- 2018 Again partnering with the City of Windsor, The WEAs were presented with the University of Windsor as the Presenting Sponsor. The Eric Jackman Youth Grant in the Arts and The Morris and Beverly Baker Youth Grant in the Arts were presented for the first time. WEAs Arts Grants were now valued at $3,000, from $2,000.
- 2018 WEA opened its first office at SHO Studios, a hub for the ARTS in Walkerville.
- 2013-2018 Changing the Odds: Community Transformation Through the Arts (CTO)

For six years a community outreach, multi-disciplinary arts program designed to provide transformative experiences to youth living with challenges has been presented at the School of Dramatic Art. This program funded by WEA with generous support from the Odette Foundation, The Morris and Beverly Baker Foundation, The Jackman Foundation and many other generous donors.

2019 A new Changing the Odds program: Downtown Music Initiative (DMI) directed by Melissa Miner received a $5000 CTO summer grant that offered a unique opportunity to 20 youth in downtown Windsor to learn to play a musical instrument in a one-on-one or small group-teaching environment. These youth live in households supported by Ontario Works, Ontario Disability Support Program or are operating below the poverty line.
